1. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] came to see me today bearing a letter of introduction from William J. Donovan, who said that he himself had been introduced to [REDACTED] by his friend, Ralph Bard. [REDACTED] said that he had good German, fair French, and a reading knowledge of Italian and wanted to serve abroad in "a liaison capacity" with European troops.

2. If you are interested, I suggest you contact him as it is not necessary to notify me or his reference of any disposal.
